

School choice in

Illinois

School choice is the process of allowing every family to choose the K-12 educational options that best fit their children.

TRADITIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS

FREE

TO ATTEND

WIDELY AVAILABLE

Traditional public schools are available for families throughout the state. States that allow families access to their choice of traditional public schools offer what's called "open enrollment."

Illinois parents may be able to choose any traditional public school within their district, based on the state's flexible open enrollment laws.

CHARTER PUBLIC SCHOOLS

FREE

TO ATTEND

PARTIALLY AVAILABLE

Charter schools are public schools that are allowed the freedom to innovate while being held accountable for student achievement.

Public charter schools are available for families in parts of Illinois. These schools can be opened after they are authorized by school districts or an independent, statewide approval board.

MAGNET PUBLIC SCHOOLS

FREE

TO ATTEND

WIDELY AVAILABLE

Public magnet schools are permitted in all 50 states and focus on specific themes, such as math, science, technology, or the performing arts. Illinois has several magnet schools throughout the state.

ONLINE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

NOT AVAILABLE

Online public schools are permanent, fully-online, and free educational options that teach students through digital classes.

NSCW was unable to find a free, full-time online school in Illinois, but paid options are available.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS

$ FREE

FREE TO SOME

WIDELY AVAILABLE

Private schools are widely available, charge tuition, and may be faith-based or independent. Many private schools or nonprofit organizations offer scholarships.

Illinois offers tax deductions for most homeschool or private school students and state-run scholarships for students under a certain income level. Additional funding may be available from other sources.

HOME EDUCATION

WIDELY AVAILABLE

All parents in Illinois have the freedom to homeschool their children. Currently, parents are not required to provide a notice of their intent to homeschool their children. However, please check for updated laws and regulations before proceeding. The state requires homeschooling parents to teach certain subjects, but does not require homeschoolers to take standardized tests.
