

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, every child in West Virginia deserves access to the highest-quality education; and
- Whereas, the State of West Virginia recognizes the important role that an effective education plays in preparing students in the Mountain State to be successful adults; and
- Whereas, quality education is critically important to the continued economic vitality of West Virginia; and
- Whereas, West Virginia has exemplary schools from which parents can choose for their children, in addition to families who choose to educate their children in their home; and
- Whereas, West Virginia has dedicated teaching professionals in all types of education environments who are committed to educating our children; and
- Whereas, it is important for parents in West Virginia to ensure the best education possible for their children; and
- Whereas, School Choice Week is celebrated across the country by millions of students, parents, educators, schools, and organizations to raise awareness of educational options in each state.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim January 23-29, 2022 as:

School Choice Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Twenty-Ninth day of December, in the Year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Ninth Year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
