

SCHOOL CHOICE IN NORTH DAKOTA

School choice is the process of families choosing the K-12 educational options that best fit their children.

	 Traditional Public Schools	 Public Charter Schools	 Magnet Public Schools	 Online Learning	 Private Schools	 Home Education
AVAILABILITY	broad*	none	limited*	limited	broad	broad
COST	free	free	free	free	free to some	varies
IN NORTH DAKOTA...	Traditional public schools are available for families throughout the state. States that allow families access to their choice of traditional public schools offer what's called "open enrollment." North Dakota parents should check with their local school district if they wish to participate in open enrollment, since the state allows districts to set their own open enrollment policies.	Charter schools are public schools that are allowed the freedom to innovate while being held accountable for student achievement. Public charter schools are not available or allowed in North Dakota. This information is accurate as of 2022; future legislative action may allow for the creation of charter schools in the state.	Public magnet schools are permitted in all 50 states and focus on specific themes, such as math, science, technology, or the performing arts. Currently, NSCW is not aware of any freestanding public magnet schools in North Dakota, but there may be magnet programs available in traditional public schools.	Online public schools are permanent, fully-online, and free educational options that teach students through digital classes. NSCW was unable to find a full-time, free online school available statewide in North Dakota, but part-time or full-time courses are available in some districts. Paid options are also available.	Private schools are widely available, charge tuition, and may be faith-based or independent. Many private schools or nonprofit organizations offer scholarships. There are no state-run scholarship options in North Dakota, but private scholarships may be available.	All parents in North Dakota have the freedom to homeschool their children. Parents must provide an annual notification to the state (or school district) of their intent to homeschool. The state requires homeschooling parents to teach specific subjects and also requires some level of assessment, testing, or evaluation of homeschooled students.

* For more information, visit: schoolchoiceweek.com/guide-school-choice-north-dakota

SCHOOLCHOICEWEEK.COM/NORTHDAKOTA