

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, all children in West Virginia should have access to the highest-quality education possible; and

Whereas, West Virginia recognizes the important role that an effective education plays in preparing all students in West Virginia to be successful adults; and

Whereas, quality education is critically important to the economic vitality of West Virginia; and

Whereas, West Virginia is home to a multitude of high quality public and nonpublic schools from which parents can choose for their children, in addition to families who educate their children in the home; and

Whereas, educational variety not only helps to diversify our economy, but also enhances the vibrancy of our community; and

Whereas, West Virginia has many high-quality teaching professionals in all types of school settings who are committed to educating our children; and

Whereas, School Choice Week is celebrated across the country by millions of students, parents, educators, schools and organizations to raise awareness of the need for effective educational options.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim January 22-28, 2023 as:

West Virginia School Choice Week in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixtieth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
