

STATE OF ALASKA

Executive Proclamation

by

Governor Mike Dunleavy

WHEREAS, all children in Alaska should have access to the highest quality education possible; and

WHEREAS, the State of Alaska recognizes the important role that an effective education plays in preparing all students in Alaska to become successful adults; and

WHEREAS, it is essential to provide families with a variety of educational options that align with their values and meet their needs while overcoming the obstacle of our State's unique geographical challenges; and

WHEREAS, Alaska has many teaching professionals who are committed to high-quality education in traditional public schools, public charter schools, magnet schools, private schools, online learning, and homeschooling; and

WHEREAS, quality education that gives students the choice to pursue vocations in which they have natural skills and passion helps prepare and diversify our workforce, enhances the vibrancy of our communities, and is critically important to the economic vitality of Alaska; and

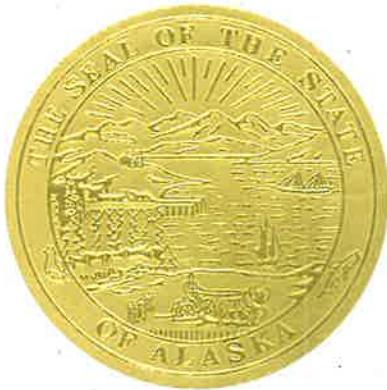

WHEREAS, School Choice Week is celebrated across the country by millions of students, parents, educators, schools, and organizations to raise awareness of the need for effective educational options and to encourage support for further access to educational choices.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mike Dunleavy, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF ALASKA, do hereby proclaim January 25 - 31, 2026 as:

Alaska School Choice Week

in Alaska and encourage all Alaskans to support, promote, and increase the different forms of education choices available to our children and commend Alaska's educators for their dedication to teaching our youth.

Dated: January 25, 2026

Mike Dunleavy, Governor who has also authorized the seal of the State of Alaska to be affixed to this proclamation.
